NEWSPAPER PRINTERS HOLD

THEIR FIRST BANQUET

The newspaper printers of Washington gave a banquet last evening, the first of the kind ever held in this city. Other meetings of a similar character will be arranged for by a committee appointed from each chapel. The meeting was typical of the good feeling existing among the printers of Washington, and was a great success.

Toasts responded to were: "Our Union," Secretary Garrett; "The American Federation," Frank Morrison; "Our Defeated Brethren," J. T. Herbert; "Achievements of the International Typographical Union," T. A. Bynum; "Experiences in Starting a Newspaper," F. S. Lerch; "Workings of the G. P. O.," Frank Stratton; "The Star Chapel," M. J. Maher; "The Post Chapel," Frank Benzler; "The Times Chapel," Dexter S. Hussey. J. Munro Kreiter was toastmaster.

WANTS MORE DETECTIVES.

A. H. F. Holsten, of 1000 Florida Avenue northeast, has written to the District Commissioners submitting a statement of his views as to the inadequacy of the detective bureau. He thinks the number of crimes that have gone unpunished within the past two years reflects upon the District government in a manner to cause shame as well as alarm. Mr. Holsten is of the opinion that two or more detectives of acknowledged reputation should be hired from outside the District to form the nucleus of the bureau. Even if their salaries had to be $5,000 a year, he thinks they should be employed. With such talent to lead the bureau Mr. Holsten is of the opinion better results would follow.

COAL NOW PLENTIFUL AND PRICES DROPPING

Receipts for the Past Week Larger Than Ever.

The coal situation in Washington has not been in a more satisfactory condition this winter than it is at the present time. With an ever increasing supply of Reading coal to distribute at $7.25 a ton, with prices of premium coal on the decline, and with a reasonable supply of fuel in the bins and yards of the dealers, there is little chance of the exhaustion of the coal supply, which at one time it was feared might close down the departments, stop the movement of cars, bring suffering and death to the householders, and even deprive the sick in the hospitals of sufficient warmth.

Since the first week of the current month the condition has constantly improved. By reason of a fairly good supply of coal, now being stored away by the dealers for emergencies, the fear of the suspension of railroad traffic by blizzard or otherwise, which for weeks has filled the minds of the people, has been greatly abated. The receipts of both anthracite and bituminous coal during the past week have exceeded the receipts for any similar time in the history of the city. The quantity seems to be limited only by the ability of the dealers to handle it.

The general drop in the wholesale price, which was indicated by the action of the Delaware and Hudson Company a week ago, compelled the independent operators to cut their prices, and local dealers have been notified of a cut of $2 a ton in the price of anthracite coal. Orders were at once placed for a quantity at the new price, but it may be a week or more before this coal begins to arrive. When it does, the price of premium coal in this city will be reduced to $9 or $10 a ton. The prevailing price is from $10 to $11. The bituminous market is much easier also, and soft coal is selling at from $5.50 to $6.50 to the general trade.

HEALTH OFFICER OPPOSES LOCAL VIVISECTION LAW

Believes There Is No Need for Prohibitive Legislation in the District.

Dr. W. C. Woodward, the Health Officer, has submitted to the District Commissioners an unfavorable report on Senate bill 6400, relating to vivisection in the District of Columbia.

Dr. Woodward says there is no evidence that any experiment calculated to give pain to the patient or to endanger his life has ever been tried in Washington. With reference to the vivisection of animals Dr. Woodward says that no evidence has been shown that needless pain is caused in experiments made in the District. He thinks the proposed law unnecessary.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETS TONIGHT

SCHOOLS TO BE GUARDED AGAINST CONTAGION

Quarantine Rules in Measles and Whooping Cough.

Children afflicted with measles or chickenpox will be excluded from the schools for a period of not less than three weeks from the onset of the disease, and those suffering with whooping cough not less than four weeks, unless the certificate of a practicing physician is presented to the effect that the patient may return to school without danger of spreading the contagion.

The epidemic of children's ailments which has been causing alarm to the school authorities resulted in the passage of a resolution making the foregoing order. The resolution was thoroughly discussed at the meeting of the Board of Education, held last night in the Franklin School Building.

The spread of juvenile diseases has been rapid since Christmas, but not so alarming now as it was in the several weeks just passed. Nevertheless, the situation seemed to justify Dr. Robert Kingsman, the medical member of the board, in holding a consultation with Dr. Woodward, the Health Officer, who concurred with the committee on sanitation that the quarantine measures provided in the resolution were necessary. The Health Officer in the past has had no authority to quarantine, except in cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever.

Changes and promotions in the schools were ordered as follows:

Leave of absence—For three months to Clara Willenbacher, seventh grade, third division; for three months to L. O. Burroughs, fifth grade, third division; for three months to Wilma Willenbacher, fourth grade, third division; M. E. Yount, third division, three months further leave of absence.

Appointments—Mrs. F. E. Fitzgerald, to second grade; Grace Lind, to second grade; Mrs. Z. Jayne, to the third grade; May Weide, temporary teacher; Elsie Parkinson, as assistant at Seaton School.

THE NEWS OF GEORGETOWN.

A northern canning and manufacturing firm, it is said, is negotiating to rent or purchase property on Water Street, Georgetown, and, if success is met with, intends to transfer its business here.

The residents of Georgetown are strongly complaining about the failure of the District government to give the section west of Rock Creek its share of public improvements. It is stated by one who has been carefully watching the expenditure of the appropriations for street improvements, etc., that the West End for the past five years has not been treated fairly in this matter. He said many prominent thoroughfares have not had one cent expended upon them for a century. The following streets are almost impassable in rainy weather and should receive immediate attention: T Street from Thirty-fifth to Thirty-second, U from Thirty-first to Twenty-eighth, Prospect from Thirty-sixth to Thirty-eighth, and Thirty-seventh from Prospect to P.

PROMOTIONS OF DISTRICT EMPLOYEES

The District Commissioners today authorized the following promotions and appointment in the sewer division, Engineer Department, to take effect February 1, 1933:

J. B. Gordon and H. C. Grant, rodmen at $780 per annum, and promoted to rodmen at $3 per day.

J. L. Sneed, rodman at $2.60 per day is promoted to rodman at $780 per annum.

T. J. Powell is appointed rodman at $780 per annum.

JOHN SINCLAIR WILL HANG TOMORROW FOR MURDER

John Sinclair, the one-legged negro who shot and killed Daisy Maddox, also colored, on the night of April 15 last, will be hanged tomorrow in the District jail. He does not believe in the existence of God and is apparently indifferent as to his fate. Sinclair's mother and other relatives called at the jail this morning to bid him good-by and spent several hours with him.
